

“The client made numerous trips to our design resource library during the product and finish selection process. They thoroughly enjoyed it.”

Bob Hogan
Director of Sales
Kentwood Office Furniture

Project Details
ElringKlinger
Plymouth, MI

Date: February 2009

Time Frame: 10 months

Industry: Auto Supplier

Project Scope: 8,000 sq ft

Application:

- Workstations
- Lobby
- Private Offices

Products:

- Remanufactured Herman Miller AO2 workstations
- Mayline-Tiffany Napoli casegoods
- Mayline-Tiffany Real Office casegoods

Sleek, Open Workspace for ElringKlinger

The automotive supplier was relocating and needed a creative layout with maximum density for their new space. Kentwood suggested remanufactured stations with 120 degree planning. This layout achieved the combination of privacy and collaboration that they were looking for. Kentwood's newly furnished design center proved to be a great asset to their furniture committee who was after a wide range of finish options.

